

Golden Felines & Flash of Fire

Langston University Marching Pride Band, Golden Feline Dancers and Flash of Fire Flag line, are pleased to announce the 2019-2020 clinic and tryouts!

We would like to cordially invite your graduating seniors, current college students, and college transfer students to participate in the hopes of becoming a member of the Golden Feline Dance line or the Flash of Fire Flag line.

The clinic and preliminaries will be held Friday May 3rd from 5:00pm to 8:00pm (C.F. Gayles Gymnasium); and final team selection will be Saturday May 4th from 8:00am to 3pm (C.F. Gayles Gymnasium)

During the preliminary clinic the young ladies will be involved in technique review, and will learn a short “Feline/Flag style” routine that will be displayed on Saturday along with their own choreographed routine during the finale try-out.

If you are traveling please note you will have to provide your own travel, lodging, and food arrangements.

Below you will find a breakdown of our clinic schedule. If you have any other questions please do not hesitate to contact Ms. Taylor Byrne (405-514-0357) (taylor.byrne@metrotech.edu)

We look forward to seeing you and Good Luck! ☺

| DAY | SCHEDULE OF EVENTS | WARDROBE |
|-----------------|---|---|
| Friday | Review Technique, Marches, and learn Routine | *Dancers – black sports bra, black biker shorts and jazz shoes *Flags – White top, black bottoms, jazz shoes or sneakers. |
| Saturday | Final Tryout Selections: (performance of your own choreographed routine and learned routine) | All participants must have full make up on.  Hair can be worn down or in bun. *Need flesh color dance stockings *Uniforms will be provided |

Taylor M Byrne, Sponsor