

Lion Camp Frequently Asked Questions

When does orientation officially begin?

Orientation begins on Wednesday, August 9, 2017.

What will students need in order to check-in?

Students must bring their group assignment page, official photo ID (state license, military ID card, etc.) and present it at the registration table.

What should I do if I have questions about admissions, financial aid or academic advisement?

Enrollment Management staff will be available during the check-in to assist in the enrollment process.

How long does orientation last?

Orientation begins Wednesday, August 9, 2017 and ends on Sunday, August 13, 2017.

What is the expectation for parents during orientation?

During the general enrollment process, parents will have their own session. Parents are encouraged to attend to learn more about the university and its processes, as well as obtain a comfort level about sending their children away to school. Sessions address concerns about managing time, dining plans, housing and residence issues, academic advising, financial aid and money matters, safety, and being away from home.

When can I arrive on campus?

New students move in on Tuesday, August 8th. Move-in is scheduled on a group basis. We ask that you are prepared to check-in at your assigned group time in order to assist us in facilitating an easy move-in process. Immediately after you check-in and fulfill any necessary enrollment requirements, you will be cleared to move into your housing unit.

What should I do if I arrive prior to my assigned check-in time?

Students and families should not anticipate that they will be accommodated as it relates to check-in if they arrive prior to the specified check-in time of their group assignment. However, students and their family are welcome to relax in the I.W. Young Auditorium until it is time for them to check-in. You are encouraged to check into your hotel (if needed) or explore the campus and surrounding area by car if you arrive early.

Are shuttle services available from local airports to campus?

Students can request a shuttle from the airport to Langston. You may call the shuttle company ahead of time to schedule a pick-up. The shuttle companies are listed below:
