Dear Graduate Student Candidate:

The Office of Graduate Programs would like to thank you for expressing an interest in Langston University. We are enclosing a set of materials that are necessary for admission to Langston University’s Graduate Program. In order to process your information for admission, we need your cooperation in completing the forms and returning them along with other important documentation. Please be sure to read and follow the instructions. The following information is requested:

Complete Credentials for Admission

1. Application for Admission. Complete the application on both sides and return it along with other documentation requested.
2. Undergraduate Transcript. An official college transcript from the registrar’s office of college or university attended certifying the bachelor’s degree must be included with the application. Official transcript(s) from the registrar’s office of all other colleges and universities attended should also be included with the application.
3. Transcript for Transfer of Graduate Courses. An official transcript of the graduate credit courses and hours being submitted for transfer approval should be sent from the registrar’s office of the college or university where hours were earned.
4. Graduate Record Examination (GRE) Score Results. All graduate degree candidates must submit GRE scores issued from Educational Testing Service (ETS).
5. Autobiographical Statement. Candidates should describe their: (a) reason(s) for wanting to attend graduate school; (b) basis for choosing Langston University; (c) rationale for the choice of major and career objective; (d) philosophy of life; and (e) special skills and talents.
6. Recommendations. Three Recommendation Forms that provide an assessment and evaluation of candidate’s personal traits should be submitted. Letters may be submitted with the forms if the recommender would like to share other information about the candidate.

If the candidate is an international student, a notarized statement of Affidavit or Support that indicates the manner of financial support available to the applicant during the matriculation at the University must be submitted with the application.

Should there be any questions or concerns regarding the admissions process, please call the Center for Entrepreneurial Studies and Research office at (918) 877-8150.

Sincerely,

Center for Entrepreneurial Studies
