

Summer 2019 Aid Information & Schedule

Langston University recognizes the summer term as the end of the academic award year. To apply for summer assistance, you must complete the Summer Aid Request form along with the current year FAFSA. For federal financial aid eligibility purposes, for undergraduates full-time is 12 hours or more, three-quarter time is 9-11 hours, and half-time is 6-8 hours. For graduate students, fulltime is 9 or more hours, and halftime is 5-8 hrs. You should be aware that to receive consideration for the Federal Direct Student Loan programs, you must be enrolled at least halftime. If you have already borrowed the maximum annual loan limit for your grade level during the fall and spring whether at LU or another school, your loan eligibility may be limited to a credit based alternative loan, or a Parent PLUS loan if eligibility remains. Summer aid request for students who were issued a Financial Aid Warning status for spring 2019 will not be reviewed until after spring 2019 grades have been posted and reviewed.

YEAR AROUND SUMMER PELL ELIGIBILITY: Students who are Pell eligible and have received full-time Pell for both the Fall & Spring terms may be eligible for Summer Pell if enrolling in at least 6 credit hours.

DIRECT LOANS AND ENTRANCE COUNSELING: Summer loan funds are disbursed in two payments, the first at the beginning of the term and the second at the halfway point in the term. In order for loan proceeds to be applied to your student account, you must be enrolled and attending at least half time at the time of each disbursement. After the initial disbursement, funds are disbursed to student accounts once per week, usually on Tuesday evenings. Students who are first time borrowers for Federal Direct Student Loan funds must complete a Direct Student Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN) and complete the Entrance Counseling Session at www.studentloans.gov. In addition, the first disbursement for first time borrowers is delayed 30 days. Students who received Federal Direct Loans at LU during the fall and/or spring do not have to complete a new MPN or Entrance Counseling Session for summer.
