ATTENDANCE POLICY

Langston University values the critical relationship between class attendance and student success. It is the responsibility of the student to:

- Read and follow the course attendance policy for each course.
- Provide valid documentation for excused absences within 5 business days of returning to class.
- Notify instructors about a planned absence.
- Arrange make up work with the instructor.
- Withdraw from a course by the deadline if necessary.
- Review the full attendance policy to be aware of potential grade penalties, consequences, and the appeals process for attendance related issues.

Students are expected to follow the Langston University attendance policy and notify instructors of individual course absences, in advance if possible. Unexcused absences may impact student grades and A/Ws, which can lead to Academic Monitoring. View the full policy at <https://bit.ly/30UJdVH>. Deans may approve a more rigid policy for certain courses. Review each syllabus for more specific information.

MODIFIED ATTENDANCE POLICY

The Attendance Policy has been modified for the 2021-22 academic year. Students are expected to follow the Langston University Attendance Policy and notify instructors of individual course absences, in advance if possible. Course syllabi include additional information regarding class absences and make up work.

Depending on the delivery modality of the class, attendance may be defined more broadly than physical presence. In other words, an absence may include failure to join scheduled synchronous class sessions; failure to participate in remote class activities, whether synchronously or asynchronously; failure to log on to Canvas, or failure to meet deadlines for submission of assignments.

Students should stay home when they have tested positive for or are showing symptoms of COVID-19 and should notify the instructor and the Emergency Leadership Team (LUELT@langston.edu) of their condition. COVID-19 related absences will be excused. The student should contact the instructor and/or Mrs. Cynthia Buckley (ADA Officer) at Cynthia.buckley@langston.edu for assistance.

FALL 2021

INFORMATION REGARDING THE IMPACT OF COVID-19

ACADEMIC COURSEWORK

The following planned operational modifications apply to all coursework at Langston University during the Fall 2021 academic term. In order to provide maximum flexibility to faculty and students, the University plans to offer courses in hybrid, flexible and web modalities and safeguards in this Plan.

Traditional

Course Location: Campus Classroom

Course Time: Scheduled Day/Time (synchronous).

Delivery Method: 100% Face-to-Face with supplemental content placed on the learning management system (Canvas).

Distance Learning Fees: No

Instructors and students meet on campus at scheduled days and times.

Hybrid

Course Location: Campus Classroom and Virtual Instruction

Course Time: Scheduled Day/Time and Synchronous and/or Asynchronous Virtual Instruction

Delivery Method: Combination of Required Face-to-Face and Videoconferencing (Zoom, Microsoft Teams, or Adobe Connect) with supplemental content placed on the learning management system (Canvas)

Distance Learning Fees: No

Instructors and a limited number of rotating students meet on campus on assigned days of scheduled days and times (Central Time Zone) while the other portion of the course is delivered virtually. The latter may be with videoconferencing or online.

Web

Course Location: Virtual Instruction

Course Time: No Scheduled Day/Time

Delivery Method: Asynchronous Web Instruction with all content placed on Canvas.

Distance Learning Fees: Yes

Students may access available course content online at any time, but assignments have specific deadlines.

Students should contact their academic coach and faculty advisor for more information about the course modality that best fits their program and situation.

Computer and Technology Rental Program

Students are encouraged to participate in request free technology. Students may request a Dell Latitude 3310 laptop computer or a Dell Latitude 3310 2-in-1 tablet computer with preloaded critical software such as Microsoft 365. FALL 2021

SUSTAINING HEALTHY OPERATIONS

Langston University sustains significant measures to address the potential impact of COVID-19 to our campuses. Our dedicated faculty, staff, and students embrace the challenge with grace, flexibility, and innovation as we all adapt to a new way of operating. Our collective response affirms the values at the core of our University; that of unwavering loyalty and a mission to serve. Our community is dedicated to adhering to the following healthy behaviors to reduce the spread: Keeping our distance, hand hygiene, & respiratory etiquette. Signage has been distributed across each campus to further promote healthy behaviors.

MASKS & FACE COVERINGS

Under Oklahoma law (EO 2021-16 and 70 O.S. 1210.189), state agencies such as Langston University are not permitted to require the use of masks on campus. However, you are encouraged to wear a mask when social distancing is not possible. Masking is recommended by the CDC even if you are fully vaccinated.

Langston University continues to monitor COVID-19 updates from the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Oklahoma Department of Health, among other local, state, and national agencies. Continue to monitor our COVID-19 Resource Page for the most current information.

SELF-SCREENING REQUIREMENT

A health questionnaire will be required for all employees and students accessing (or living on) campus on a continual basis and will be administered through the LU Health Services Clinic. Where necessary and practical, telehealth screens will be required for students and on-campus residents. Accommodations will be available throughout the pandemic for all community members, including and especially for those in high risk categories. The following modifications to campus housing arrangements have been implemented: designated isolation policy and designated quarantine locations. The University Counseling Center offers extensive resources and professional counseling for all faculty, staff and students. For confidential support, please contact us at (405) 466-3335. Learn more in the Protect the Pride plan on the LU COVID-19 resource page at www.langston.edu.

NOTIFICATION & REPORTING REGARDING COVID-19

Consistent with applicable law and privacy policies, faculty, staff and students are required to notify and report if they become sick with COVID-19 symptoms, test positive for COVID-19, or have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 symptoms or a confirmed or suspected case.

When a student (1) experiences COVID-19 symptoms, (2) tests positive for COVID-19, or (3) believes they have been exposed to a person that has or is believed to have tested positive for COVID-19, the student is required to notify LU by completing this online form at <https://bit.ly/2DGPsD>.

COURSE MATERIAL

Digital versions of all available textbooks have been adopted for Fall 2021. Follett will also have some of the textbooks on hand for students who require hard copies. The students will receive an email from Follett with a link to the e-book for each course.

TELECONFERENCE ETIQUETTE GUIDELINES

The guidelines below are intended to promote a positive learning environment when using a teleconferencing platform such as Zoom or Microsoft Teams. Instructors reserve the right to modify. Additional resources, including LU-branded Virtual Backgrounds for Zoom can be found at Zoom: Professionalism & Etiquette | Langston University

- Set Up Your Workspace: Ensure your workspace is quiet, clean, and has an appropriate background, or use a LU branded virtual background. See templates below.
- Test Your Connection: Check your Wi-Fi connection in advance, test your video and audio, and get familiar with the software before entering the meeting. To learn more, see additional resources below.
- Setting Up Your Web Camera: When using your web camera, be sure it is in a stable position and focused at eye level, if possible. Doing so helps create a more direct sense of engagement with other participants.
- Be Mindful of Background Noises: Be sure to mute your microphone when you are not the host. When your microphone is not muted, avoid activities that could create additional noise, such as shuffling papers.
- Avoid Embarrassing Mistakes: Pay attention to your video, microphone, and screen sharing settings to avoid embarrassing mistakes. Always keep the chat rooms appropriate.
