21	When I transferred to Langston and I didn't feel like as connected as I did at my previous HBCU. I did not find Langston as exciting.	7/16/2020 7:14 PM
22	Attended in Tulsa and never had a reason	7/16/2020 6:34 PM
23	The process of completing your degree at Langston is unorganized and tedious. The experience was frustrating and I did not like having to call and email multiple times to get anything done. It made my experience bad. Professor people should be professional and complete what needs to happen for students. This process in my opinion discourages people from completing their degree there or pursuing a graduate degree there. I love HBCU's but I would not recommend Langston unfortunately.	7/16/2020 6:30 PM

like I would not be welcomed by the black students or professors including staff on campus. I graduated From Langston in my early 40's, my WHITE parents (Dad a WWII vet) were SO impressed with the campus and felt so welcomed. My mother enjoyed the speaker along with campus wide outdoor food menu. Since my graduation I thought several times about coming for a basketball game or some other function, but with today's problems I don't think as a WHITE female and my family would be welcomed at Langston.
